

Typography and Culture in Northern Italy

May 15, 2019–May 28, 2019

Be enriched in the Italian culture including trips to modern and historical sites, and experiences in the city with people, places and food.

Flight

Depart Wednesday, May, 15

Arrive in the morning Venice, Italy Thursday, May 16 and train to Parma

PARMA

A quaint city famous for Parma prosciutto and parmigiana cheese

Thursday, May 16 Parma

Group welcome dinner

Friday, May 17 Parma

Palazzo della Pilotta

visit Bodoni museum and Palatina library

Saturday, May 18 Parma

Piazza della Pilotta

visit to National Gallery, Theatre, Archeological Museum

BOLOGNA

A charming and historic medieval university city.

Sunday, May 19 day trip to Bologna

MAMbo, museum of modern art and Morandi museum

Visit to nearby museum, gallery, park or cathedral

Return to Parma

TREVISO

A picturesque town of canals and cobblestone. A tranquil and charming in the heart of the Veneto region.

Monday, May 20

Travel to Treviso

Gallerie delle Prigioni

Tuesday, May 21

Benetton Studios and Fabbrica

Tour Fabbrica, a unique communications research center for young creatives with a visit to the United Colors of Benetton studios and archive

Wednesday, May 22–Friday, May 24

Tipoteca! Tipoteca is a world-renowned typographic museum and working press room. Students will spend 3 days, hands-on in the facility working with historical type and printing presses.

Saturday, May 25

Free day, optional visit to Bologna, Venice, Verona or Padua

Sunday, May 26

Treviso museum tours including the Salce museum to see an amazing collection of advertising graphics

VENICE

The enchanted city of canals that is rich in art and history

Monday, May 27

Day trip to Venice

Visit to the Piazza San Marco to visit one or more of its famous museums

Tuesday, May 28

Depart from Venice