

Smith: (Breaking in, upset) You can't do that. I'd rather be trapped!

Smith turns and storms out.

Xander: I'm sorry about him.

Harper: What's got him so worked up?

Xander: It must be a shock for him to see you. The truth is... You and Smith were married for fifteen years, and then you died in an accident.

Harper: I died?? Why didn't he go back and save me, if he cared so much? You can time travel!

Xander: Your timeline isn't stable enough after you meet Smith. If we changed anything, there could be unforeseen consequences. It could destroy the whole universe.

Harper: (Determined) There's no way I'm going to let that happen! I'm going to go back and stop it. How did the accident happen?

Xander: I wasn't there.

Harper: Then I'll go find out from Smith.

Harper exits the bridge in search of Smith.
